Conference 2011

The training conference is an opportunity for vergers to come together, to learn, to pray, to relax, to have fun, and to enjoy the fellowship of mixing with other people, who have the same vocation, but work in many different ways and in a vast array of differing buildings.

The theme of this years conference will be:-
‘What sort of people are we?’

Monday	Morning Prayer
	Registration Continues
	Annual General Meeting
Key Note Speaker	Dealing with people - a Cathedral Administrator
	Guild Congregation
	Solemn Eucharist
Tuesday	Morning Prayer
	The Eucharist
Talk	New Register legislation, Registrar General
	Midday Prayers
Talk	Being Human Jerry Gilpin
	Songs of Praise
Wednesday	Morning Prayer
	Guild Requiem
	Myers Briggs Day led by Jerry Gilpin
	Evensong
Thursday	Morning Prayer
	Feedback Session
	Solemn Eucharist and Close

There will be a full round of services in the Comper Chapel, and in the Oratory, so that as well as being a training conference, it will also have the feel of a retreat.

As part of the training week, volunteers are asked to assist in taking an active part in each service.

Please remember to bring your robes of office, which we ask you to wear (without hoods) for the opening and closing Eucharist's, please feel free to wear them at other services.

Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner are served each day

Please bring your own towels and toiletries

The Bar will be open in the evening. There is a religious bookshop on site, and the Guild Shop will be in attendance.

Please note that the true cost of Conference per delegate is approximately £240.00 the shortfall is made up from the bursary fund, if you or your church are able to pay the true cost, we would be most grateful.

The Chairman and Guild officers look forward to welcoming you to Conference.
